Georgia Boot's Whitemarsh Collection Perfect for the Farm and Ranch

NELSONVILLE, Ohio – Georgia Boot has taken the popular duck boot and given it a rugged touch to create the Whitemarsh collection.

“These boots are a great combination of utility and style,” said Jordan Gottke, marketing manager for Georgia Boot. “They are everything you need in a pair of farm boots without losing the stylish look consumers have come to expect from Georgia Boot. These boots should be a hit for years to come.”

Developed with the agricultural consumer in mind, the Whitemarsh collection features a pebbled full-grain leather upper with channel grooves on the toe to funnel water off the boot. The vulcanized rubber outsole of traditional duck boots has been replaced with an aggressive, durable rubber that is oil and slip resistant with self-cleaning lugs for added traction.

The boots have a removable polyurethane Georgia footbed for supreme comfort and also include the Georgia Waterproof System to keep feet dry in even the worst conditions.

The Whitemarsh collection is available in eight-inch and pull-on styles. The eight-inch style includes lace-locking hooks for additional stability. Retail prices range from $139.99 to $149.99.
